

CRIMMIGRATION
IN THE SHADOW OF SOVEREIGNTY
III CINETS CONFERENCE

6-7 OCTOBER 2016
MARYLAND USA

Call for Papers

Third CINETS Conference—6th and 7th October 2016

University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland

<http://www.crimmigrationcontrol.com>

Themes

- 1) Federalisms and sovereignties
- 2) Technologies and control
- 3) Borders, enforcement and detention
- 4) Trafficking and forced migration

We are pleased to issue this Call for Papers for the 3rd CINETS Crimmigration Conference.

Please submit or inquire to:

<mailto:Cinets.mlawprograms@umd.edu>

Presentations must be carried out in the official language of the Congress, English, (unless special arrangements are made) and they must follow one of the three proposed formats:

1) Oral; 2) Paper; 3) Combined 4) Alternative

Oral presentations will last for 15 minutes, with access to technology (computer; projector)

Paper submissions will be considered for possible publication for the 3rd CINETS book (30pp maximum in A4 Word format, Calibri, size 11 font, line spacing of 1.5 lines and 1 inch (3 cm) margins.

Alternative presentation may include a work of art, dance or other expressive, visual presentation

Combined Submissions indicate you intend to do 1 and 2, or some combination with 4.

Abstracts must follow narrative format of 500 word maximum, and include Topic Area and whether a presentation). Abstracts must be submitted and must include author(s), professional/academic affiliation, and email. Abstracts should be sent to... (for example... MLAW@UMD.EDU)

Dates to Remember:

Abstracts due: September 15, 2015 Admissions notification: October 15, 2015

Final Papers due: February 15, 2016 Conference: 6-7 October 2016

Conference Committee

CINETS—Crimmigration Control International Net of Studies MLAW Programs at the University of Maryland

Conference Maryland Sponsors

MLAW Programs, driven by MPOWER; Center for the History of the New America